"I SHOULD'VE SENT HIM BACK TO THE BABY HOSPITAL!" LITTLE ANDY'S MUM

There are many self-made millionaires in the world, who've become rich by their own efforts. But are there self-made horrendous people? Sure, there are – and Little Andy's one of them! He's successful and rich ... not in the money sense, but in being unwittingly offensive.

The Adventures of Little Andy is a wild collection of life episodes that are in equal parts hilariously honest and painfully embarrassing. They range from a disastrous family reunion to an evening with the New York underworld, to a near-death experience in Tokyo, to an interview with global star Ellen DeGeneres that went horribly wrong.

He might be politically incorrect, highly inappropriate, and have a potty mouth ... but perhaps we all need a little bit of Little Andy in our lives.

You be the judge.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Andy Kay has shared his messed up life moments over many years, from dinner parties, on-air to casually sitting on people's desks at work. Each time the reactions were varied from person to person, but one thing he noticed consistently was that they made people laugh out loud.

That's why during his spare time working in a behind the scenes job for a Melbourne radio station and between recording his popular podcast, he decided to put pen to paper and write this book. He now hopes to bring that same raucous laughter into your life with The Adventures of Little Andy.

A CONVERSATION WITH THE AUTHOR

HOW DID YOU COME UP WITH THE TITLE FOR YOUR BOOK?

Kate Langbroek used to call me Little Andy when I was the Promotions Manager for the Hughesy & Kate national Drive Show on the KIIS Network. She would also sing me the song 'Me and Little Andy' by Dolly Parton regularly at work, usually on approach to my desk for a sweet treat.

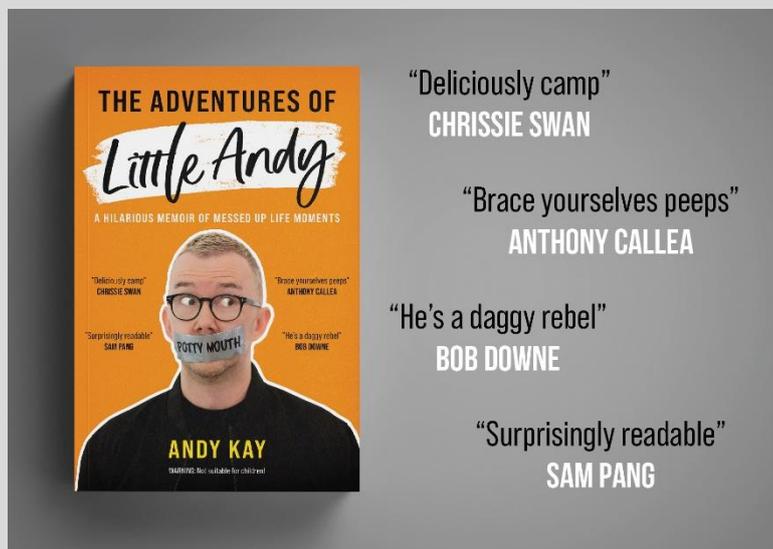

DID YOU EVER CONSIDER WRITING UNDER A PSEUDONYM?

No, I'm proud to write about my life, the good and the bad. There are no skeletons in my closet, I'm very much into self-deprecation!

WHAT WAS YOUR WRITING JOURNEY LIKE FOR THE ADVENTURES OF LITTLE ANDY?

This book took me about 9 months to write, usually writing about 2-3 hours a day. I was inspired by Kate Langbroek's gorgeous book (Ciao Bella) about her time living in Italy with her family during a global pandemic. It helped me to think of following my dream and writing about my life.

The hardest scene I had to write was the Little Andy's Family Reunion, as there was a lot of raw emotion involved in that moment in my life, but I can find the funny side about it now.
