

Breakfast with Paul

Written by Bernard Marin

TWO NOVELLAS BY TALENTED AUSTRALIAN AUTHOR BERNARD MARIN

ON THE LONG SHADOW CAST BY WAR...

BREAKFAST WITH PAUL

Two old friends meet every Saturday for breakfast. Outwardly, their lives have followed similar paths – both are Jewish, both migrated from Europe after the war – but their childhoods are very different and shaped them in ways they are struggling to understand. Will their differences ultimately divide them, or bring them closer together?

SURVIVING

Stasiek emigrated to Australia as a teenager before the Second World War, in which he served as a stretcher-bearer. He survived the Holocaust, but his beloved older brother, Beniek, whom he'd replaced on the boat to Australia, was murdered, as were parents Pinkus and Sara, sister Gutka, and many of his uncles and aunts.

As an old man he reflects on his life and the price he has paid for surviving.

Also by Bernard Marin – People who have Changed the World

Through the discussion between interviewer and interviewee, Bernard Marin has sought to offer insights into the personalities, passions and foibles of Albert Einstein, Marie Curie, Mahatma Gandhi, Mother Teresa, Sigmund Freud, Simone de Beauvoir, John Stuart Mill and John Maynard Keynes.

Join Bernard as he embarks on a scintillating, amusing and – at times – confronting literary journey through time and place to meet some of the giants of history. The result of a great deal of research into the life stories of the interview subjects and studied through both primary sources – those written by the characters – as well as articles, books and films made about them.
