

The Hidden Heirs

Written by Simone Kamfonas

FAITH HAS NEVER BEEN ABLE TO REMEMBER HER PAST, NOT SINCE BEING DUMPED AT AN ORPHANAGE AS A YOUNG GIRL...

When a girl's weekend trip turns to become a freak accident, Faith finds herself waking in a world different from her own alongside her two best friends.

The three girls are forced to adapt to a world dominated by men, where women by design serve only as dutiful wives to tyrant rulers.

They quickly learn that navigating these changes in societal norms is the only way to stay alive.

When faced with a forced marriage to Prince Sebastian, Faith's wild spirit must be tamed so she can play the perfect queen, but when an unexpected ally appears, questions of Faith's identity haunt her at every turn.

Does this unknown world hold the answers to her missing memories? In a land less at peace than first glance shows, the past seems bound to find some way to the surface...

A CONVERSATION WITH THE AUTHOR

WHAT HAS YOUR WRITING JOURNEY LOOKED LIKE?

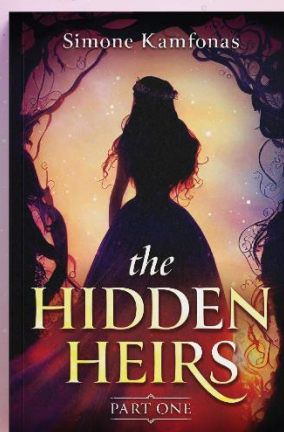

I loved creating stories since I was a little girl but it wasn't until the death of my father that I started to write. I would gain inspiration from dreams or other random things in my life.

The Hidden Heirs took me three years to write as I was working full time, teaching VCE subjects, and marking exams externally. It came about due to a dream that I had and as I developed it further as I started to write I could see the characters and how they would react to certain situations.

My husband pushed for me to send it to a publisher for years as he said, despite not reading much himself, that he was enjoying the characters within my book. I never thought it would go anywhere until the day that I received an email from Shawline.

WHAT ARE YOUR PLANS FOR YOUR FUTURE BOOK/S?

I'm not currently sure. I am just enjoying writing three books at the same time. They are all set in different times and places but I am enjoying the different female characters and the vast difference in the male characters.

"Nuanced with modern inceptions to the genre, this fresh tale of friendship, loss and new perspectives is a wonderful first book by this exciting new author..."
