A CONVERSATION WITH THE AUTHOR

WHAT WAS YOUR INSPIRATION FOR KISSES FROM NANNA?

Kisses from Nanna was born in the middle of the pandemic lockdowns. My little grandchildren were hundreds of kilometres away and we were missing out on important and treasured time with them. I woke one night with pretty much the whole Kisses from Nanna text rumbling through my brain. I got up immediately and started writing in case I forgot by morning.

WHAT KIND OF RESEARCH DO YOU DO?

For Kisses from Nanna, it was more intuitive than researched although I did utilise my knowledge of appealing rhyme and book length and chose to use interesting words that help stretch a young child's 'word knowledge'. I also drew from my experience as a grandparent and parent educator in regard to the importance of strong family bonds in the development of positive emotional health for children.
