

Cassie's Song

Written by Robert Barclay

A SEARING STORY OF LOVE, GLAMOUR, AND BRUTALITY...

Cassie's Song tells the story of three women's journeys.

One confronts moving on with her life after her husband's murder.

One is at the peak of her fame on the world concert stage.

One is a passionate fighter for the environment against murderous corporations destroying the world's rainforests.

Cassie's Song rambles along briar paths in Hampshire villages with Katy, rekindling her love of the English countryside unchanged since Jane Austen's time, sashays with Clara across the glamorous fashion capitals of the world and treads the horrific, secret world of greed in the prehistoric rainforests of Kalimantan with Cassie.

Two families face the devastating price the world pays for beauty and lays bare the grim world of human rights abuses and rainforest bastardry.

The climax will leave two mothers uplifted by their magnificent daughters and facing loss that must be endured like the rivers tell time, not the clocks.

There are monsters as well as angels in this life.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR
