

Mortice in America: More Justice – Mort Style!

Written by A J Wilton

What happens when the hunters become the hunted?

In Canada for the Invictus Games, Mort and Pig take on what appears to be a simple favour for an old colleague. Little do they know, they're about to find themselves in the thick of a deadly cat and mouse game that will launch them across the expanse of North America.

With consequences both brutal and mighty, they can only hope to stay alive.

Follow Mort and Pig as their lethal skills are put to the test in this explosive new adventure by Australian author

A J Wilton in his Mortice series!

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

AJ Wilton is an Australian small businessman with two thriving businesses who turned to writing through the quieter times brought on by Covid. He describes himself as a 'Hobby Author', fitting this into his already time poor days.

This is his third novel, in a series about Mort and Pig in what is planned to be a series of six or more.

He lives in the Gold Coast hinterland in Queensland with his wife. He has three adult children and three grandchildren.
