

Quietly Waiting

Written by Justin Fox

TANYA IS A STRONG, INDEPENDENT, INTELLIGENT, YOUNG WOMAN LIVING IN ENGLAND.

Surrounded by limitless possibilities, her biggest fear is not being able to find her true place in the world.

Never usually driven by emotions, her world is turned upside down when she meets Evan.

Evan is instantly her soulmate connection, and he feels the same way about her.

Awakening in each other new emotions and feelings that neither had known, a deep sensuality between them is uncovered that binds their hearts with passion and conviction to their love.

When Evan is deployed to Afghanistan to fight a war he does not understand, Tanya must wait at home, feeling helpless to the cruel events beyond her control.

A CONVERSATION WITH THE AUTHOR

WHAT IS THE MOST DIFFICULT PART OF YOUR WRITING PROCESS?

Having a finished book is the hardest part. I can write the entire manuscript but to get to the point where I can say it is finished is very difficult. I feel like they are living and never truly finished. To be able to handover a finished product and say this is complete is near impossible.

HOW DO YOU SELECT CHARACTERS NAMES?

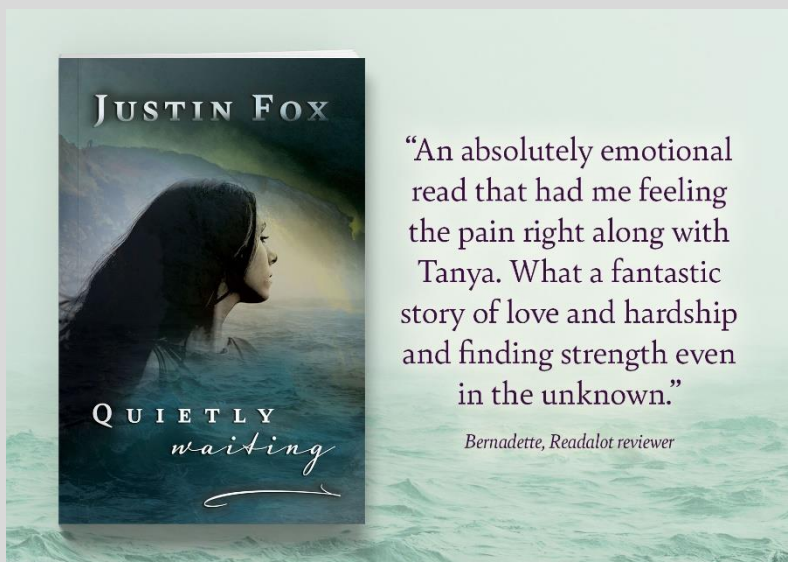

Sometimes the character name comes to me with the story, other times I will look to family or friends or even reach out to others for ideas on social media. Finding the right name to fit the character is so important that this can often be the hardest part of the story.

DOES WRITING ENERGISE OR EXHAUST YOU?

It is a bit of both, when writing I am energised and can write all night without stopping which leaves me totally exhausted for all the other commitments in my life, like work. So, I need to control myself and try and be planned with my writing which can be frustrating. I write for 3-4 hours a day but would love to be able to do it full-time. I have so many ideas at any one time that I currently have 4 finished books, about another 6 in writing and outline for another 20. Lots of ideas to get down on the page.

“An absolutely emotional read that had me feeling the pain right along with Tanya. What a fantastic story of love and hardship and finding strength even in the unknown.”
