WATCH OUT FOR SPIDERS AND SNAKES WHEN TRAVELLING IN AUSTRALIA... BUT MORE SO, BE WARY OF STRANGERS AS WOMEN CAN GO MISSING ALONG THE BOTTOM HALF OF AUSTRALIA...

These whispered words ring true for the beautiful competition shooter, Darlene Adams, as she drives westwards along the plateau of the almost treeless Nullarbor Plains.

When news reaches Darlene that her favourite niece, Cassie, has been mysteriously reunited with the South Australian Police, she finds herself introduced to dark secrets and a special need for Darlene's expertise to help locate two missing young women. Promising to be reunited with Cassie in time for Christmas no matter the cost, Darlene must keep her own telescopic sight close and her pistols closer to assure her promises.

A CONVERSATION WITH THE AUTHOR

WHY DID YOU WRITE TRUE TO HER WORD?

Overcoming adversity and having the courage of one's convictions, inspired the terrific adventure. It is often easier to accept people cannot grasp one's logic, than it is trying to make them understand it. Anything can be achieved when common sense and hard work prevails.

I have a lot of time and respect for long-haul truck drivers and military personnel, and wanted to extend my acknowledgements to them in the hope they too read my book, but also to draw people's attention to the importance of being attentive to their own accountabilities. Missing boys, girls, women and men are a genuine occurrence and this story highlights how an act of misjudgement can ruin many, many lives. It is all too true to know there are rogues in every walk of life that draw breath.

WHAT DREW YOU TO THE SUBJECT MATTER?

An intimate knowledge of the Nullarbor Plains, grain harvests and the importance of integrity. The characters developed with the growing storyline emulating people's traits that I have witnessed, suspected of sinister behaviour as well as knowing true earth angels.
