

BRONNY THE DINOSAUR

... Where's Mummy?

Written by Jenny Fitzmaurice

Illustrated by Kimberley Coffey

WILL BRONNY BE BRAVE ENOUGH TO FIND HER WAY HOME ALL BY HERSELF?

Bronny, an adventurous and curious young dinosaur, sees a beautiful butterfly with colourful wings. Amazed by its beauty, Bronny follows the butterfly as it dances on the wind.

Time goes by quickly, when Bronny realises she is lost and has wandered far away from her mummy.

Join Bronny the Dinosaur as she experiences an adventure she did not expect and finds her confident self as she gains the help from the wiser dinosaur, Tracey Pterodactyl, on her journey back to her mummy.

AUTHOR BIO

My name is Jenny Fitzmaurice. I live on the Sunshine Coast, Queensland. I have two boys which have inspired me to be the author I am. I have worked seventeen years in Childcare and completed a Diploma of Childcare and Education. My hobbies are art, cooking, and spending time with my family. I have always liked to write and working in childcare, have gained an awareness of what children enjoy reading.

A CONVERSATION WITH THE AUTHOR

WHY DID YOU WRITE 'BRONNY THE DINOSAUR... WHERE'S MUMMY?' WHAT WERE YOUR INSPIRATIONS?

As Bronny the dinosaur gets lost and couldn't find her way home, she uses recalling skills and becomes independent after a little help from Tracey Pterodactyl who gives her some wise advice. This story sends a message to children to be confident with themselves and not to be afraid of being initiative and independent.

In the book, there are a number of characters that are portrayed as Bronny's friends. They will be the introduction of the characters in the next book series of Bronny the dinosaur. Some of these characters will have a main part of this book series and also have morals for the readers to enjoy and pay attention to. My inspiration is to continue Bronny the Dinosaur with a new and different story.

HOW DO YOU CREATE OR MODEL YOUR CHARACTERS TO FIT THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE STORY AND THE EXPECTATIONS OF THE READERS?

Bronny the Dinosaur is based on a gentle yet smart brontosaurus. Brontosaurus are one of my favourite dinosaurs because they are not meat eaters, large enough to defend themselves and pretty much placid plant eaters. Same with the mother. Terry the triceratops, Rex the T-Rex and Stella Stegosaurus are Bronny's colourful, playful friends that are friendly even though some of them are meat eaters. Bronny's friends are innocent like in child form. Tracey Pterodactyl is the wise, old yet smart dinosaur that gives wisdom to the fellow younger dinosaurs. She helps them but just enough for them to figure it out themselves. I picked dinosaurs for this book because it is popular with all age groups.

WHAT DOES LITERARY SUCCESS LOOK LIKE TO YOU?

To learn something new each day, to have a good connection with illustrators and other authors to help my inspiration of writing and become better at it and to gain recognition as a great child's author and be popular with my writing.
