

Brick The Farm Dog

Written by Blair Ripepi – Illustrated by Christina Miesen

Brick the farm dog was by his very nature, a farm dog for all the best reasons his owner could list!

From the morning wake up lick to the fixing of fences, digging out old crops and planting new ones...

Brick the farm dog was a legend!

He would find the lost sheep, race the horses and help pick the kids up from school too. Brick was the best and at a day's end, after a hearty meal, he'd take some rest... Because tomorrow he would be up to do it all again!

"An entertaining and fun day in the life of Brick the farm dog for all to enjoy. What a wonderful dog to have on a farm... Well done to the team at Playtime books..." Taylor, Indie Book reviewer

A CONVERSATION WITH THE AUTHOR

WHY DID YOU WRITE 'BRICK THE FARM DOG'? WHAT WERE YOUR INSPIRATIONS?

I wrote this book as something to do while on long drives. Once I began writing it, I found it was a fun way to relax and unwind. The inspiration behind it was I was driving through farmland and was trying to come up with something to write about. Basically, it was the first idea that came to mind.

HOW HAD YOU DECIDED ON THE BEST CHARACTERS FOR THE BOOK?

Every good farm has at least one farm dog.

HOW DO YOU CREATE OR MODEL YOUR CHARACTERS TO FIT THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE STORY AND THE EXPECTATIONS OF THE READERS?

The story was created around the character, so the story ended up fitting the character.

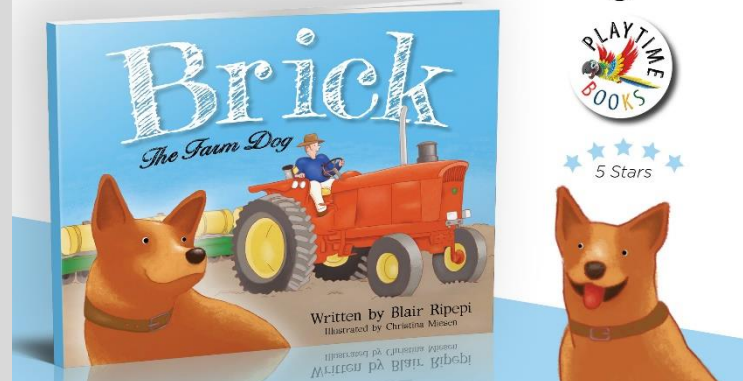

WHERE DO YOU GET YOUR INFORMATION OR IDEAS FOR YOUR BOOKS?

Whenever I think of them, I write them down. Then when I'm ready to write, I just go back to that list.
