Agent, a former individual from the planet Ganji, has found himself in this situation. After being tortured and sent to the planet Sensum, to be terminated by the hands of those who he followed and trusted.

What he couldn't have imagined finding were all the previous agents living peacefully on the planet, all with a hunger for revenge.

Agent must rediscover who he is as he learns to live with the fact that his fight against the Superiors will not be over until he joins the resistance and takes control for the freedom he dreams of.

In this thrilling sequel to Death's Embrace, Agent must come to terms with fighting for what is right and discovering the terrors of his new home planet.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Strengthening Death is the second book to be published by H. E. Hristov, following on from the first in the series Death's Embrace. H. E. Hristov drew connections from her Aboriginal background and cultural learnings to provide a new take into the new world Agent is now thrust in to. When H. E. Hristov is not writing her novels, she is spending her time with her two young children and partner, or sitting behind her computer writing for a children/young person's horse magazine, where she writes articles on her famous great, great, great grandfather and about the exciting lives of various horses from our ancient and modern history. H. E. Hristov hopes that you enjoy the second part of Agent's journey in discovering what lies beyond our planet.

A CONVERSATION WITH THE AUTHOR

WHY DID YOU WRITE 'STRENGTHENING DEATH'? WHAT WERE YOUR INSPIRATIONS?

I wrote this book to continue the storyline. I enjoyed it as I was able to tap into my cultural background and create a more spiritual side to the characters lives. I loved creating new creatures and lands, exploring how far I could take the brutality and gruesome parts of what was inside my head.

I still stand with my beliefs from when I wrote the first book after the passing of my uncle. I didn't want to get to his age and think "what if?" I needed to write so that when I get to his age, or if something ever happens to me like it did to him, I have no regrets or wonders.

As well as being a mum for the past eight years with my life revolving around my kids and what they have on, I needed something for me! I needed to show my kids that they can do something they love and not be afraid to put it out there into the world, that even if it fails, at least I tried.

WHAT DREW YOU TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THE BOOK?

I have always loved Sci-Fi. I grew up watching Star Gate, Farscape, Galaxy Quest and Star Wars and I loved the idea that we are not alone. My characters essence is all based on people I know, who I wanted people to be, what I wish I could do to some people and watching them become real in my head.
