A CONVERSATION WITH THE AUTHOR

WHAT KIND OF RESEARCH WENT INTO 'THE MAGIC EYE'?

I don't do a lot of research in the usual sense. I don't want to be overly influenced by anyone else. The places I describe are either imaginary or based on places I have been in my travels.

I tentatively started this book around five years ago while teaching in Florence. In it's original form Florence played a larger part, but I decided to save much of that for another story.

WHAT DREW YOU TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THE BOOK AND ALSO THESE CHARACTERS WITHIN?

Mainly having grandchildren who LOVE stories. I always loved stories as a child. For me I loved having books for an escape that I truly treasured and it's something I wish to keep sharing with my grandchildren.

I love the idea of writing for young readers who love an adventure and having a story where good prevails, no matter how bleak things look at times.
